

ALPHABET BINGO

10 BINGO BOARDS FOR SCREEN-FREE TRAVEL

ALPHABET BINGO

Keep kids entertained and off screens (at least for a bit!) on your next trip or while running errands. Print multiple boards and see who can find everything on their board first. Try them with a kid-sized clipboard from The Trip Clip® for great screen-free travel!

Teachers can use these on field trips and send them home with kids to help parents reduce screen time.

10 Alphabet Bingo Boards

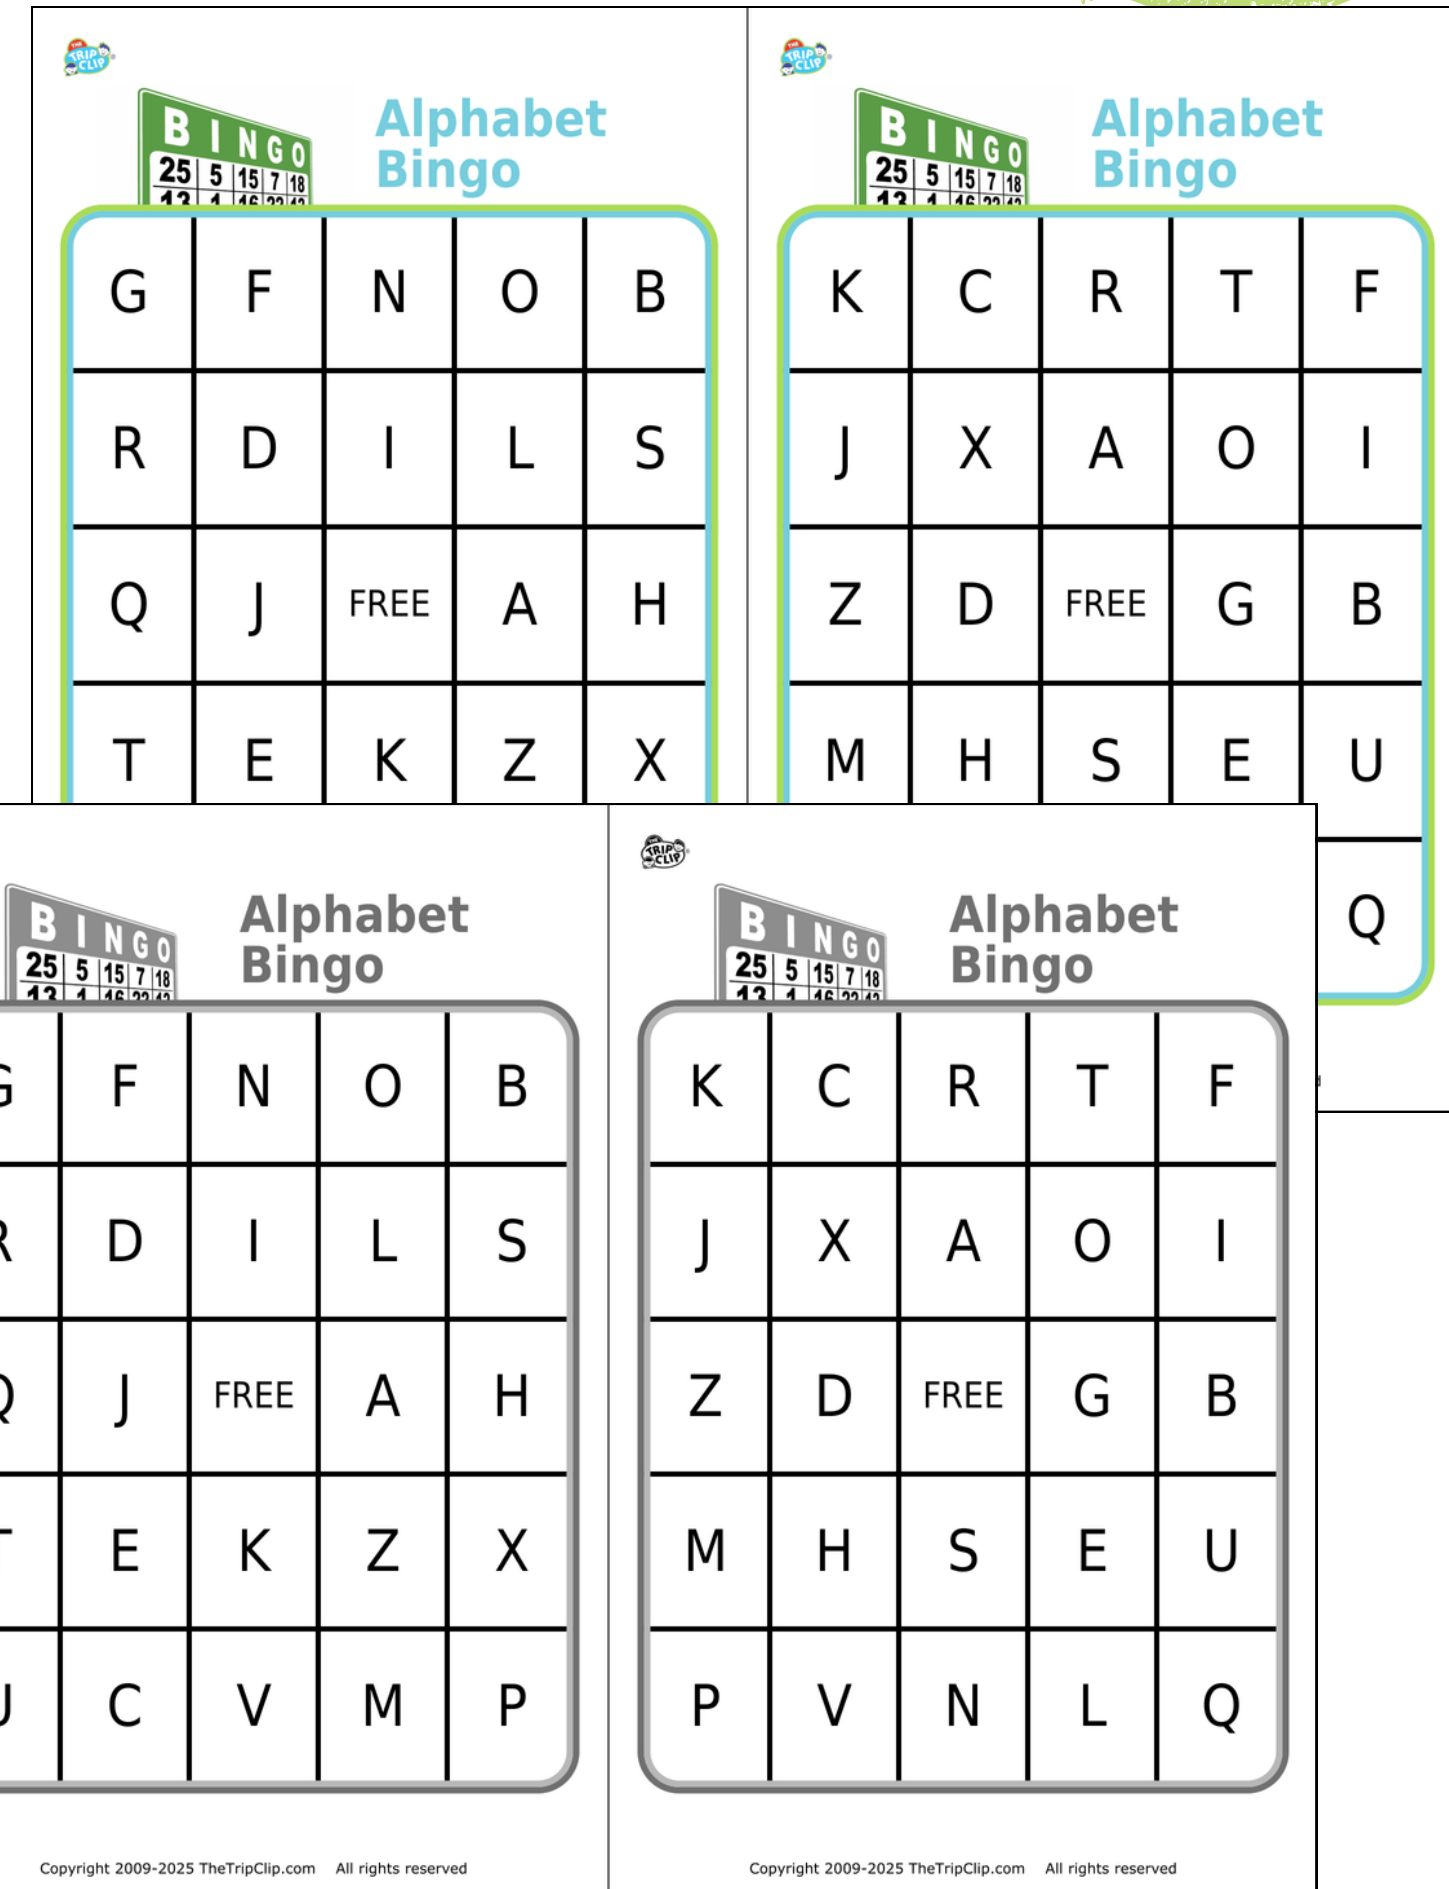

K	R	P	G	H
L	F	S	N	W
T	D	FREE	U	J
M	C	I	V	X
Y	B	Z	Q	O

Downloadable PDF for screen-free learning & fun

WHAT'S INCLUDED

- 10 unique 1/2 sheet bingo boards with 24 upper case letters on each board
- Color and black and white versions of all the boards
- Letter and A4 (international) versions of all the boards
- Ideas for how to play and learn

IDEAS FOR HOW TO PLAY

- 5 in a row: Have kids find 5 in a row (across, up and down, or diagonally) to win.
- Fill the board: For more of a challenge, have them try to find every item on the board.
- Time them: If they want to turn it into a game, time them to see how long it takes them to find 5 in a row, or find everything on the board. Then see if they can beat their time the next time.
- How many? You can also make it competitive by giving them a board each time you get in the car, and count how many they can find by the time you get to your destination
- Cooperative multiplayer: If you have multiple kids, print the same board, and have them work together to find everything on the board.
- Competitive multiplayer: If you have multiple kids, give each one a different board, and see who can find five in a row first.
- Competitive multiplayer 2: If you have multiple kids, give each one their own board, and see who can find them all first. If no one finds them all, the person who finds the most wins.

IDEAS FOR HOW TO PLAY (CONT'D)

- Start with the basic game by finding the letters on road signs. For young kids, this is great letter recognition practice, and you can play it just driving around town as well as on road trips.
- Next, try playing it at the grocery store (or any store) to keep little ones entertained. Have them find the letters on the signs at the store.
- You can also just have them find items in the store that start with each letter (doesn't need to be on a sign). This is great early reading practice that has them think about those first letter sounds.
- Add in some handwriting and spelling practice by having them write down the items they find that start with each letter. This clipboard and 4-color pen make it super easy to use on the go.
- For older kids who are ready for more than the traditional alphabet game, you may want to add some more challenging goals. Make the game harder by requiring the words they find on road signs to START with the letter for it to count. It will take them longer this way, though you may have to make an exception for the letter X!
- Mix it up (for big and little kids!) by printing bingo boards with the letters in a random order and have them find the letters in the order they appear on the board. This works great if you have more than one player and you can give them different boards because they are looking for the letters in a different order.
- Challenge kids to find a bingo (5 letters in a row) all in a single sign. This one takes patience – keep track of near misses (3 or 4 letters in a row) to keep them engaged.