

Learning with Christmas Activities

Have kids wrap the presents they're giving. They'll practice measuring, cutting, and fine motor skills.

Make gingerbread houses using graham crackers like blocks to make any style house.

Bake Christmas cookies with them. They'll practice math, science and fine motor skills.

Decorate with paper snowflakes for cutting and folding practice.

Go Christmas caroling. Music teaches vocabulary, rhythm, self-expression, and improves your memory.

Write a letter to Santa for writing practice.

Write thank you notes for writing and etiquette practice.
